

NEWS

It's about time! Remembering landmark achievements, taking stock of progress, and looking at the big tasks and challenges ahead that are to tackle: it fuels the ambition of women political leaders.

During the WPL Summit 2018, co-hosted by Seimas, the Parliament of Lithuania, and held under the Patronage of President Dalia Grybauskaitė, more than 400 Women Political Leaders and other experts from around 80 countries celebrated that 100 years ago, women in Lithuania gained voting rights.

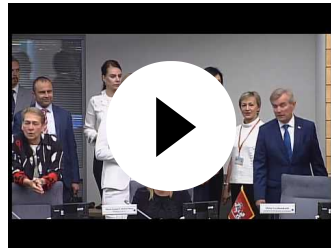

PHOTO GALLERY

The WPL Summit 2018 had its focus on women leadership: The shifting world security order, the digital revolution, countering violent extremism, to just name some policy areas, needs trusted leaders. Outcomes of the discussions, and insights gained bring about accelerated progress.

EVENT LIVESTREAM RECORDINGS

Day 1

Day 2, part 1

Day 2, part 2

Equal Access to Maternal Healthcare in the EU: A Reachable Goal – Let's push for action now!

Money or Mentorship: How can politicians and Financiers team up for Women's Economic Empowerment?

The next generation of leaders was present, the delegates of the Girl2Leader campaign, from around 30 countries. Many different themes – from Blockchain to social media trainings to building women's caucuses in Parliaments have been addressed, and a WPL study on access to maternal healthcare in the European Union was presented - to list a few of the many highlights.

PRESS COVERAGE

SOCIAL MEDIA REPORT

Please take note of the WPL Summit 2019 in Tokyo, Japan. The WPL Summit will take place in the context of Japan's G20 presidency in 2019. We look forward to seeing you in Tokyo in June 2019!

You are receiving this email because either:
1) You are a part of the Women Political Leaders Global Forum (WPL) network
2) You subscribed via our website

Want to be removed from our mailing list or update your personal information? Click here.
The Women Political Leaders Global Forum (WPL)
Efstathi 5 | Reykjavik 103 | Iceland
Brussels office: Boulevard Charlemagne 96 | 1000 Brussels | Belgium
mail@wpleaders.org

