Obligation to provide data

As a website user, you are under no statutory or contractual obligation to provide your personal data to us. If you enter into a contractual relationship with us, you may need to provide some personal data for the purpose of the realisation of the contract.

Links to Other Sites

Our Service may contain links to other sites that are not operated by us. If you click on a third party link, you will be directed to that third party’s site. We strongly advise you to review the Privacy Policy of every site you visit.

Children’s Privacy

Here I need to know what kind of info we collect for #Girl2Leader and under what circumstances we can do that.

The privacy of children is important to us. This Privacy Policy explains how WPL collects, uses and discloses information collected from children under the age of thirteen through this website, mobile site or application. This policy also explains the rights that parents have with respect to their children’s personal information.

When a child accesses and interacts with the WPL website or program, we may collect certain information automatically about those visits. The information we collect includes the type of computer operating system, IP address and/or mobile device identifier, web browser type, content viewed, the frequency with which the child visits various parts of our sites or applications, information regarding the online or mobile service provider, and cookie ID. We do not collect registration information from children on this site.

Cookies and other tracking technologies (such as pixels, beacons, and Adobe Flash technology, including cookies) are comprised of small bits of data that often include a de-identified or anonymous unique identifier. Websites, apps and other services send this data to a child’s browser when he or she first requests a web page and then stores the data on the child’s computer so the website can access the information when the child makes subsequent requests for pages from that service. These technologies may also be used to collect and store information about a child’s usage of the websites, such as pages visited, content viewed, search queries run and contextual advertisements served. We only use these types of information to support the internal operations.

We use the information we collect from and about a child to allow the child to participate in our “Girls to Leader program” and to provide the child and/or parent with support and to respond to inquiries. WPL may make a child’s information available to certain third-party service providers, such as contractors or agents who help us manage or provide our Services. These service providers only collect and use information from children for our internal purposes, consistent with this Privacy Policy.

In the event we start collecting registration information from children, we will provide parents with the ability to access the information collected from their children.
If you have additional questions regarding this privacy policy, please contact us at mail@wpleaders.org

Changes to This Privacy Policy

We may update our Privacy Policy from time to time. We will notify you of any changes by posting the new Privacy Policy on this page.

We will let you know via email and/or a prominent notice on our Service, prior to the change becoming effective and update the “effective date” at the top of this Privacy Policy.

You are advised to review this Privacy Policy periodically for any changes. Changes to this Privacy Policy are effective when they are posted on this page.

Jurisdiction

The current Privacy Policy is subject to Belgian law. For cases related to the current document, we appoint the court in Brussels, Belgium as the competent one.
